

Radiochemistry and Radioisotope Handling Laboratory

Building 26 (PEMS South), room G50-South
Contacts Heiko Timmers, Wayne Hutchison

A shielded radiochemistry laboratory is available for the safe storage of radioactive samples, and the preparation of wet and open radioactive sources. It features several flow cabinets and detectors for activity evaluation.

Facilities include:

- fume cupboards
- lead-shielded storage compartments with individual access

